ABOUT IOWA WEST PUBLIC ART

Iowa West Public Art (IWPA) is an initiative of the Iowa West Foundation (IWF). Launched in 2007, IWPA is guided by a community-driven Public Art Master Plan. The result is more than 50 sites designated for public art throughout the city of Council Bluffs. IWPA's vision for the year 2015, is a community with a national and international reputation for high quality art that attracts visitors from all over the world, fueling economic development. For complete information and interactive maps, visit www.iowawestpublicart.org.

COMING SOON: INTERSTATE GATEWAY

A monumental $3 million installation by Albert Paley will create a dramatic entrance to Council Bluffs and the State of Iowa.

“This gateway creates a landmark. Council Bluffs gains a real sense of place and becomes a destination, a point of memory for all.” -Albert Paley
